An intricate, intense and harrowingly suspenseful novel in the bestselling tradition of Jeffery Deaver, "Blood of Others" chronicles a man's descent into madness and murder as he obsessively searches for the one woman who can forgive his sins. In the broken heart of a cold city, a shy, solitary woman seeks her soulmate -- someone who will finally love her. Hidden away from a world that rejected him, a tortured man finds the one woman who can absolve him of his monstrous sins -- and redeem his soul. She thinks she's found the man of her dreams -- until he becomes her worst nightmare. Because his love has turned to obsession. His obsession to madness. And his madness to terrifying murder.
