The Hunter by Brenda Jackson: Hunter Sloan, private P.I. is every inch the player. He likes his relationships passion filled and short-lived. However, while working on a case with Mallory Standish, he experiences a one-night stand that he wants to lead to much more. Just Wanna Love Ya by Joylynn Jossel: Jai is looking for a good time when she steps into Club Cream with her best friend. But after only one hot encounter with Sloan, she realizes that she's found more than an all night man. She's found an all night, all day, everyday man. Never Satisfied by Kayla Perrin: Rachel Milford is sick of set-ups, bad dates, and boring one-night stands. Then a blast from the past shows up and turns Rachel's love life into anything but boring. Fantasy Man by Tamara Sneed: Olivia Hawkins has agreed to help out her brother, president of a prestigious Los Angeles public relations firm. Her job? Entertain one of Hollywood's finest bad boys, Clark Stone. Olivia, a no-nonsense kind of woman, thinks that they will have dinner, talk business and call it a night. Clark, however, has very different ideas.
