It is the eve of Americas invasion of Iraq, and Saddam Hussein has threatened to attack Tel Aviv if a single tank entershis country. Though the United States has no intelligence on the type or location of the weapon, Naval Lieutenant-Commander Dan Lenson and a recon team of Marines and military professionals are ordered to eliminate the threat.fter a crippling trek into the Iraqi desert, the team successfully locates the weapon in the underground tunnels of Baghdad, only to find that destroying it would unleash a horror more terrifying than anyone could have imagined.David Poyers adventures featuring Dan Lenson have been acclaimed as some of the finest sea novels of our time. With Black Storm, Poyer moves to new territory and offers his most suspenseful book to date.
