Say hello to Charlie the Crocodile and Wilbur the Turtle. The maze-loving pals lived 200 million years ago, when dinosaurs still roamed the earth and that's why young readers who share a passion for puzzles and dinosaurs will happily grab a pencil and join the friendly reptiles on their adventures. As they wander through caves, up hills, near red-hot volcanoes and by the cool sea, they'll unravel great mazes about the fabulous prehistoric beasts they encounter. It's a smart combination of story and solving, complete with fun dinosaur facts throughout.
