A breath of hope and renewal from thailand. Nine-year-old Kati has always lived with her grandparents in the house by the rivery. Every day she goes to school, does her chores, and plays with Tong, the abbot s nephew. she is happy enough, but something , someone, is missing. Kati has not seen her mother for nearly five years and does not know where she is , until one day she receives some shocking news from grandmother. Her mother is very ill with Lou Gehrigs disease and has suffered from it for many years, Would Kati like to go see her?
