"Read them alone Or read them aloud. Read them to your Mumsy or recite them to a crowd. Change the words, Arrange the words, Or rearrange the beat. Know a poem? Show it off To everyone you meet." Loris Lesynski's popular book of poems is newly released in full color Poetry is cause for celebration It needs to be shared, shouted out, changed, rearranged, and most of all -- enjoyed. Celebrated author and illustrator Loris Lesynski's first book of 28 original poems spills over with her fun-filled approach to poetry. This book is a celebration of the joy of language. Loris's poetry is an invitation to be irreverent, observant, witty, expressive, and creative. She demonstrates how much fun poetry, and everyday life, can be. Poem themes range from mosquitoes to sock fluff to fretting mothers and monkey wallpaper-things that kids are really interested in.
