With a quirky sense of humour, retro style and hip attitude, Bob Shea captures the excitement one irresistible chick experiences when he puts on a pair of brand new socks. It's true that not everyone has this reaction to new socks but everyone knows how much fun it can be to have something new. It can change the way you look, it can change the way you feel! And in the case of new socks it can change the way you walk, especially if you're a chicken. This is a book for readers who have decided that they can wear nothing but their Superman cape or ballet tutu or have discovered the only food worth eating is Macaroni Cheese. In other words, this book is told with 'kid logic' and embraces the affection we have for things when they're brand new.
