For those who love sailing and you are there travel literature. Also for those who enjoy studying the life and times of the Apostle Paul. But definitely for those who love adventure or at least reading about it. Seafaring isn't for the faint of heart. It wasn't for the Apostle Paul in the first century A.D. shipwrecked imprisoned and often a stranger in foreign lands. And it turned out to be a heartstopping task some two thousand years later when a religion professor and his wife undertook a 14 month journey by sailboat. They stopped in eight countries visiting every site where Paul stopped on his tumultuous missionary journeys. Sailing Acts traces this 21st century voyage from Volos Greece to Rome Italy by car by foot by motorized scooter but mostly on a 33 foot boat logging more than 3600 nautical miles over two sailing seasons. The book includes dozens of photos maps showing the couple's travel routes a list of all the repairs and replacements Stutzman made to the aging boat which he bought sightunseen and an itinerary of places they visited.
