Different Minds, an illuminating side-by-side account, is both a thoughtful memoir and a wide-ranging handbook. Prepared with the assistance of the Alzheimer Society of New Brunswick, it offers practical advice on everything from reorganizing finances to dealing with emotions. In intimate journal entries, Lorna expresses how hard she finds being both partner and caregiver, while Leo shares knowledge gathered from experience and extensive reading. His vivid descriptions of how a person fighting Alzheimer Disease interprets his strange new world are invaluable to people newly diagnosed with this disease and to their loved ones and caregivers. Featuring a detailed bibliography and a list of useful web sites, Different Minds is a unique guide to coping with mutual distress while enjoying life together.
