Whether you are a native New Orleanian, a newcomer, or a visitor to the Crescent City, satisfy your craving for 'la bouche Creole' (the Creole taste) in your own kitchen with the help of well-known Creole chef Leon Soniat, Jr. Soniat gives the recipes for the most popular Creole dishes -- the ones most frequently found in restaurants -- and also shares the secrets for the classic Creole dishes found on his family table. There are over 200 recipes in the book including: Okra Seafood Gumbo, Creole Bouillabaisse, Crabmeat Mornay, Chicken Jambalaya, and Coush Coush. From familiar New Orleans dishes to unique adaptations of traditional recipes, this cookbook is a truly comprehensive sampling of Creole cooking.
