Max does it again but this time with more color and incredible new projects. His new book, Hemp Masters - Getting Knotty, is a simple, easy to follow, instructional guide to creating outstanding hemp jewelry and building upon the success of the first book, features greater use of colored hemp and more fantastic patterns. With market tested patterns and a little hippie humor, this guide will keep you smiling as you learn. And, as Max says, "If you enjoy doing something, you do it well. If you enjoy learning something, you learn it well." This book contains an abundance of illustrations and photographs to complement the clear, complete instructions.
