In the time it takes to answer a telephone, Jenni Hamilton's life changes forever. Jenni finds herself not only a widow but the police are accusing her husband of horrible acts. Jenni has a choice. She can believe the police or she can believe in her husband. For Jenni, there is only one choice but she doesn't know that her choice will start her on a journey that will take her to another country, put her life in danger, and be betrayed by people that she loves and trusts. She turns to God for strength, wisdom and courage to help her on her journey to discover the truth. VISIT ME AT: WWW: LILLIANKDUNCAN.COM
