Ray McCreary is a Vietnam vet, Just forty, with inclinations--startling to himself--to settle down, marry the woman he thinks he loves, and have a child. He sets out on a journey to seek a kind of closure with a past lover and with Bullet, the buddy who got him through the war but who can't shake a lingering agitation. Not sure where he's going or what he'll find when he returns to the old Virginia school-house he shares with Vivian, Ray is nonetheless driven into one last round of adventure, a quest for what he might be missing or what he might want to give up. With an eye for natural and human hazards--copperheads and buffalo, the violence of men who never find their place, the shadow of the war--Sydney Blair captures perfectly the eternal despair of some vets, the slow healing of others, in this moving novel.
