Three single friends try to cope with life while also trying to survive in the "real world" while learning that life isn't that bad when you have friends, but as fast as things are good they turn bad and makes the three come to the real definition of friends forever. Simone, battling her abandonment issues while longing for the love she thinks she needs in order to make her whole. Taylor, who has made a life of looking for love is forced to deal when an ex-boyfriend that gives her the reality check of a lifetime. Lastly Jordan leaves behind in her past an abusive boyfriend for a better life. Unable to run anymore she has to confront the past. Their life experiences teach each of them about self love and recognition, earning them the right to say, "And Even If I Did," Can you?
