Some tales in this collection were inspired by H. P. Lovecraft, others he revised, two he co-authored—but all bear the mark of the master of primordial terror.

The Horror in the Museum—Locked up for the night, a man will discover the difference between waxen grotesqueries and the real thing.

The Electric Executioner—Aboard a train, a traveler must match wits with a murderous madman.

The Trap—This mirror wants a great deal more than your reflection.

The Ghost-Eater—In an ancient woodland, the past comes to life with a bone-crunching vengeance.

AND TWENTY MORE STORIES OF UNSPEAKABLE EVIL
