Young Rachel Kalama, growing up in idyllic Honolulu in the 1890s, dreams of seeing far-off lands, but at the age of seven Rachel's dreams are shattered by the discovery that she has leprosy. Forcibly removed from the family, she's sent to an isolated leprosy settlement on the island of Moloka'i. In exile Rachel finds a family of friends to replace the family she's lost - but loss remains a constant shadow as Rachel watches those she loves succumb to the ravages of leprosy. Moloka'i is a story of hope, dignity, and the strength of the human spirit.

评论

故事情节还是有的，但是除此之外一无是处。

我真是很多年没有看过这么鸡汤的小说了，我个人感觉像是《鼠疫》和《活着》的结合，但是它明显没有活着的最后那么深刻。总之写的不赖，每章都在死人。LA Times 对它的评价是一个词：“poignant”
