In "Soul Mates Dissipate," the sensual and bittersweet story of true love tested, Mary B. Morrison's soulful, sexy, and totally uncensored voice speaks right to the hearts of her readers, making her one of today's most exciting and original authors. Exquisite ebony-skinned fashion photographer Jada Diamond Tanner may have her pick of fine men, but no one has captivated her like gorgeous financial advisor Wellington Jones. From the moment of their first embrace, Jada is sure he is the soul mate she has waited for. But while the love she shares with Wellington is exhilarating, Jada finds herself facing challenges she never could have imagined -- from Melanie Thompson, bright, beautiful, and talented, but hungry for the love she has never had. . . and from Cynthia Jones, Wellington's overbearing socialite mother, who believes Jada will never fit into her circle of aristocratic friends. Forced to make difficult choices, Jada will soon learn some painful lessons about love, trust, and commitment. But she will also discover deep emotion strengths in herself, along with the courage to celebrate the joy each day can bring -- with or without the man she loves.
