Once Key West was a sleepy hideaway for fishermen, drunks and poets. Now it's suffering from an influx of money, motor homes, and real estate sharks smelling fresh blood in the water. Freelance photographer Alex Rutledge knew the island then, and knows it now. And when he's sent to document a lurid murder scene, Rutledge is in for deja vu: the killing has been done before...Someone on Key West has started duplicating notorious unsolved homicides, taunting a disorganised police force and leaving behind a trail of bodies, blood and fear. While the cops search through the island's colourful social strata to find a motive and perpetrator, they keep coming back to one man: the guy with the camera. Now, Alex can't be a bystander anymore. In a place where everyone gets a second chance - from former lovers to ex-cons - he's dancing for his life while a killer frames the final shot...
