"The Cook's Collection" eliminates the need to flip through your classic cookbooks or your beastly, disorganized magazine collection looking for your favorite recipes. These boxes compile the best recipes from the likes of Mark Bittman ("How to Cook Everything"), Rachael Ray, and "Good Housekeeping". Each box contains 50 recipes printed on 4 x 6 cards for easy access and workability. The covers of the boxes mimic the familiar look of the brands they're adapted from while still maintaining a series feel, so they can be purchased by buyers separately or together.
