Madison is confident that the scrapbook she makes in celebration of President's Day will win her the first prize trophy and a free pizza. But despite her self-assurance, her classmate Jonathan wins the prize. Madison is very distressed, especially as she tried so hard. With wise counseling and consolation from her parents and Courage, her toy lion, she does the right thing and congratulates Jonathan on his success. This story highlights an important lesson: trying your best is what truly counts.
