Take Find Your Fit! to the Max with a Discovery Workbook "What do you want to be when you grow up?" Many of you may have known the answer to that question since kindergarten. More likely, however, you've been from astronaut to zoologist and back to architect and you still aren't sure. Unsure what you want to be, unsure even of who you want to be, and definitely unsure of where you want to do all this. The questions are big and overwhelming. They're also very important. Developed by some of the top minds in youth ministry and personality testing, Find Your Fit is the best tool available today for teens to discover their God-given uniqueness their talents, spiritual gifts, values, passions, and personality type. It's street smart and spiritually wise and designed for either individual or group use. Now, the Find Your Fit system is enhanced with the Find Your Fit Discovery Workbook. Created in response to demand from youth groups, bible studies, and other voices clamoring for more material, the Find Your Fit Discovery Workbook expands on the life discovery exercises found in your book. More exercises and more interaction mean more answers and information for you as you search for guidance and direction. This workbook is part of the revolutionary LifeKeys system that across the country has been opening believers eyes young and old to their unique gifts.
