The first book for young readers about the popular television show starring LeVar Burton. Lights Camera Action Take a remarkable tour through the studios of the Emmy Award-winning children's series, Reading Rainbow, and see how producers, writers, directors, and actors turn a book into a show. Young readers will learn the insider's lingo too, from "dolly shot" to "boom", and be right on the set from the time LeVar Burton first learns his lines to when the director shouts, "Cut That's a buy " Ronnie Krauss's crisp text and Christopher Hornsby's lively photographs perfectly capture the exciting world of television.
