"The Craft of Teaching About Families" presents a variety of course designs, evaluation methods, and teaching techniques and strategies that can be used to address the complexities of family life. This unique book prepares students for the challenges they will face as they leave the campus for the classroom, providing them with the problem-solving skills they will need for success. The book's contributors - a distinguished panel of family scientists, sociologists, public policy analysts, psychologists and extension specialists - examine a range of topics, including family law and policy, advocacy, parenting skills, international families and diversity.
