Aimed at the beginner to intermediate crocheter enthusiast, these 25 stylish designs run the gamut of fashion accessories, from scarves and wraps to hats and mittens, ponchos, handbags, and more. The basic stitches needed and the finished projects they can produce are shown in diagrams and color photographs. There are details about choosing needles, yarns, and other materials, and each step of every project is completely explained, so even novices can get great results. The thoroughly modern designs include the delicate Poppy lacework scarf, a funky Raspberry beret, the Bluebell beach cover-up, and a Jelly Bean handbag that combines colorful flair with everyday functionality. Tips include working in rows and rounds, using increasing and decreasing stitches, blocking, and finishing techniques.
