"Rosetta, Rosetta, Sit by me" That's what the white girls at Miss Tracy's Female Seminary yell when Rosetta, Frederick Douglass's nine-year-old daughter, shows up on the first day of school. But things don't turn out the way she expects. Not only does she have to study in a classroom all by herself, but she's also kept apart at recess. Told in Rosetta's voice, this remarkable story is appended with a biographical endnote on Frederick Douglass, time line, reproductions of a letter from Rosetta, Douglass's newspaper, The North Star, and source notes.
