It's a sunny morning, and Jack knows the perfect spot to take Mama for a picnic -- the park, of course! But things don't work out as Jack planned! There are lots of lively surprises before he and Mama find their picnic spot -- one as unexpected and familiar as it is perfect. The friendly, funny story of their day unfolds in breezy, energetic pictures filled with quacking ducks, high-stepping horses, frisky dogs, and yakety-yaking people. When mishaps happen, children will especially enjoy the refrain "who knows why" because they'll know why! And they'll welcome the biggest and best surprise that's been saved for last.
