Doctor Hopper and Nurse Rex Barker are back in action, zooming around to cure sick toys. One minute they're having a cup of tea and a biscuit; the next they're off on an emergency call. Take Pajama-Case Pig. She's got a terrible tummy ache - until Dr. Hopper delivers three baby piglets And then there's a mystery toy whose head is stuck in a saucepan. Will sneezing powder do the trick? This witty picture book, showcasing the author's distinctive illustrations, makes an ideal playtime read.
