Nicole is afraid of the dark. No matter how many times her mommy tells her there are no monsters, Nicole knows they are hiding in her room ? in the closet, under her bed, and in the clothes she sometimes leaves on the floor. Sound familiar? Most children know what Nicole is going through ? and most parents can relate as well. But how can a parent calm these fears? The Monster Run has colorful and amusing illustrations by Matthew Mercer, What is novel about this book is that it is ?based on a true story.? Children, parents, and of course, grandparents, will love the fun yet easy way to banish monsters forever, yet leave any child feeling safe and loved. The perfect bedtime story. Midwest Book Review says, "Every grandparent should own this creative book. This enchanting tale based on a true story, reveals the importance grandparents can play in a child's life. The book is vibrantly illustrated and will soothe any child's imagination. The Monster Run is a gatekeeper to keeping those pesky night monsters away "
