"Jump in. Buckle up. All set? Let's go " Everybody is going to the beach today-and half the fun is in getting there On the way a family of dogs meets mice on motorcycles, hippos in an ice cream truck, and geese in a plane. Young children will love beeping, honking, mooing, and splashing along with the lively animals on their road trip. Eleanor Taylor's delicate illustrations enliven this sweet and simple family outing to the beach.
