This jazzy story reaffirms that even when people who love you are far away, they are thinking of you all the time and loving you as the "cool-girl brave and strong" that they know you to be! Just right for encouraging self-esteem, this book celebrates the relationships girls have with moms, aunts, sisters, friends, and everyone who loves them. Bright, energetic illustrations and onomatopoeic, rhythmic poetry make this a fun read-aloud and a great gift for young and old!
