Bees buzz and flamingoes flute, but only people were made to talk to God. Because He loves us, we can talk to God almost anywhere-in church, at home, on the playground, even on the moon Debby Anderson explains this exciting truth in a colorful and fun story based on God's own Word. She includes Scripture references to help parents and young readers know and understand the Bible better. Kids will learn that they can talk with God and that He will always listen to their prayers.
