Upon graduating from the I3P (Interplanetary Puzzling Peace Patrol), your first assignment is to stop Mad Tausig. It won't be easy. Puzzles, traps, mazes, and robots lie in wait on your journey to foil this madman's plot. From his puzzle lab in Brooklyn, New York, Ben Tausig writes crosswords for The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, Chicago Reader, and many other fine papers. Goopymart is a one-man (Will Guy) design studio specializing in bright, colorful, lumpy things.
