To-Do List inspires young and old not to take life too seriously. The "tasks" on Maya's to-do list range from the everyday-buy milk, be less messy, go on vacation, make friends, and no fighting-to the exceptional-dance like an octopus, hug flowers, star gaze, smile giant, eat sweets, and count clouds. Each "task" is adorned with an ink drawing that has been painstakingly hand-rendered in astonishing detail. Soon enough, your own to-do list will include enjoying the novelties found on every page. Maya Waldman is an illustrator of all things tiny and precise. She is currently spending a year in the Marshall Islands teaching children, swimming in a lagoon, lazing about in a hammock, and eating coconuts. When Maya isn't traveling, she lives in San Francisco.
