Almost every critter and creature that walks, hops, flies, swims, or slithers is part of this merry menagerie of jokes and riddles. Why do fish avoid computers? They get caught in the Internet. What do you get if you cross a mink and an octopus? A fur coat with eight arms. What huge reptiles ate lemons? Dino-sours. What happened to the leopard that fell into a washing machine? He came out spotless. With so many comic gems to choose from - hundreds in all, accompanied by funny cartoons - kids will be laughing out loud for hours!
