""Girls are so silly "" That's what two very opinionated little boys have to say, as they make fun of everything female. "They spend all day combing their dolls' hair " one mocks. And they're "such scaredy cats " laughs the other. But the guys soon get their comeuppance when it turns out they're the ones who get frightened...not their sister Manuela Olten's bright, distinctly tongue-in-cheek pictures will have young readers laughing out loud.
