Best-selling author/illustrator team Lester and Munsinger tell the story of a sheep who takes on another identity in order to fit in. Ewetopia is not comfortable in her own wool, and every attempt she makes to impress the other sheep falls flat. So when an invitation to the Woolyones' Costume Ball arrives, Ewetopia knows her chance to shine has come at last. After trying on fifty-eight different costumes, she finally finds the perfect one-or so she thinks. But her wolf ensemble turns out to be none too popular with Rambunctious, Ramshackle, and Ramplestiltskin, so Ewetopia finds herself standing all alone again when a stranger enters the room. He is dressed simply as a sheep, but he is so handsome, with his long eyelashes, charming grin, and wool so lovely that it looks fake. Ewecalyptus, Ewetensil, and Heyewe all look on as the newcomer chooses to dance with none other than Ewetopia. But as they twirl across the floor, Ewetopia begins to wonder about her mysterious partner: Why is his growl so deep? Why does he have such long, sharp claws? And why does he keep calling her "Mother"?!!!
