Mel Beeby, the fun-loving, troubleshooting Agent Angel, is back in this third sparkling bumper collection of three stories. Join her adventures in: Making Waves, Budding Star and Keeping it Real. MAKING WAVES Mission: Foil the pirates! Bad-boy Brice has been behaving himself lately. So when Mel is asked to join Brice on a mission to the seventeenth-century Caribbean, she happily zooms off to pack her bikini. But the lush paradise of the New World soon shows its dark side, and Brice abandons his mates in Port Royal, the wicked Jamaican city where pirates rule like kings. Has Brice blown it for good this time? BUDDING STAR Mission: Rescue a pop princess! When a young Japanese pop idol gets into trouble, Mel and Reuben volunteer for a spot of soul-retrieval. But chasing Tsubomi's soul through another dimension is not as easy as it looks. Castles, ninjas, mysterious hermits and magicians aside, someone is playing a very dark game, and Mel thinks she knows who. KEEPING IT REAL Mission: Save my best friends! Mel gets the surprise of her life when she's sent on an urgent angelic mission -- back to her old school. When Mel arrives she's shocked to find her school is now a nightmarish hellhole and her best friends are in deep trouble. Worst of all, it could all be Mel's fault!
