Joanne O'Sullivan has delighted children everywhere with her 101 Places You Gotta See Before You're 12! The series, and the adventures, continue with an idea-packed book for the under-12 set that's a sure cure for boredom. From exciting outings to creative activities at home, it's crammed with stuff that's amazing, amusing, and inspiring. Plus, this list lets kids take the lead—they can use it as a springboard for their own discoveries. So what tempting things are on the game plan? Well, how about visiting a crazy festival, like the UFO Encounter in Roswell, New Mexico? or competing in a wacky contest—perhaps the U.S. open Sandcastle Competition? Closer to their own backyard, enterprising youngsters can build a tree house, learn to cook a special dish, or trace their family roots. Whatever they choose, this is a fun and challenging to-do list—and, as a bonus, kids get stickers to mark what they'd like to do and what they've done.
