Written to honor Sir John Hicks on the occasion of his retirement as Drummond Professor of Political Economy in the University of Oxford, the majority of the essays are directed to the development of the three great topics of modern economic theory to which he contributed a Value, Capital and Growth. This work also contains important papers on general equilibrium, aggregation, and index numbers all topics of deep interest in international economics. The volume includes masterful contributions by Kenneth Arrow, Jagdish Bhagwati, Roy Harrod, Paul A. Samuelson, Robert M. Solow, and Alan A. Walters among others.
