John Philip Sousa (1854-1932) is an American icon. Most famous for his military marches, the journeyman composer led a disciplined group of devoted musicians around the world and shaped a new cultural landscape. Paul E. Bierley has spent forty years documenting every aspect of the "March King's" band: its history, its star performers, its appearances on recordings and radio, and the problems the group faced on their 1911 trip around the world. Enhanced by more than 120 images and photographs, "The Incredible Band of John Philip Sousa" also contains appendixes that include where the band played, who played in it, program listings, and a discography.
