The most comprehensive discussion available of the work of philosopher, John McDowell.

Contains newly commissioned papers by distinguished philosophers on McDowell's work, along with substantial replies to each by McDowell himself.

The contributors are philosophers with international reputations for their work in the areas in which they are contributing.

Covers the whole of McDowell's philosophy, including his contributions in ancient philosophy, moral philosophy, philosophy of mind, philosophy of language, metaphysics and epistemology.

McDowell's replies to the contributions in this volume contribute to the body of his work.
