They found her heaped in a shallow grave, sawed up, and burned. Thus ended

Madalyn Murray O'Hair, the articulate 'atheist bitch' whose 1963 US Supreme Court case ended school prayer. Her Christian-baiting lawsuits spanned three more decades; she was on TV all over the country, foul-mouthed, witty, and passionate, launching today's culture wars over same-sex marriage and faith-based initiatives. She was a man-hater who loved sex, a bully whose heart broke for the downtrodden. She was accused of schizophrenia, alcoholism, and embezzlement, but never cowardice or sloth. She was an ideologue who spewed toxic rage even at the followers who made her a millionaire. She thrived on her fame, but just as the curtain of obscurity began to lower, the family vanished in one of the strangest of America's true crimes. This is the real story of 'the most hated woman in America', by the only author to interview the killer and those close to him and to witness the family's secret burial in Austin, Texas.
