American history has been shaped by numerous debates over issues far ranging in content and time. Each volume in this series focuses on a particular issue, concentrating on those men and women who shaped the debates. The authors pay special attention to fleshing out the life histories of the shapers, considering the relationship between biography or personal history and policy or philosophy. Unlike other works that emphasize end results, the books devote equal attention to both sides, to the "winners" and the "losers." The three waves of feminism are explored through the lives of the women who made history in bringing women's issues to the forefront of American society. It includes Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Billie Jean King, Betty Friedan, Helen Gurley Brown, Jane Fonda, and Sandra Day O'Connor, among others.
