Toby remembers her rabbi's sermon about Rosh Hashanah and tries to be a good citizen and help others. She starts by helping her best friend, Donna, understand the importance of Jewish customs celebrated for the high holy days of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Retelling these stories leads Toby to learn a lot herself. Gloria Teles Pushker holds a master's degree in Education with a concentration in children's literature from the University of New Orleans. She is a member of the national Storytelling Association and the Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education. Judith Hierstein holds a bachelor's degree in art from the University of Iowa.
