Salvador Dali (1904-1989) was one of the twentieth century's most famous artists, a painter whose remarkably potent work is recognized the world over. Both his extraordinary artwork and a brilliantly eccentric personality account for his universal popularity. He is best known as the master of Surrealism, and during his lifetime, one of the most famous and talked about figures in twentieth-century art. Here is the story of the man and the artist, presented along with his most vivid and sometimes disturbing works, represented by 100 full-color illustrations.
