Since the debut of I Love Lucy in 1951, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz have brightened the world by sharing their gift of comedy with millions of fans worldwide. Now you can relive the laughter of the classic TV show in the pages of this one-of-a-kind scrapbook. Chronicling the many special moments of the years the sitcom was in production, this amazing collection of unusual mementos creates a truly unique interactive history. Each of the 193 episodes is covered, with hundreds of photos, fun facts, and authentic, personal notes. Featuring reproductions of such never-before-seen rarities as Little Ricky's birth certificate from "Lucy Goes to the Hospital," a candy wrapper from "Job Switching," and Lucy and Ethel's sightseeing tour bus tickets from "The Tour," you can revisit your favorite moments. Read the label on Lucy's favorite energy drink, Vitameatavegamin, or laugh at Ricky's frantic telegram to the Marriage License

Bureau in "Hollywood Anniversary." Historic materials and the detailed narrative of Elisabeth Edwards—longtime author and friend of the families—combine in a unique experience for the true fan.
