An insider's account of the wild and wacky teams that created the wild and wacky cartoons we still love today This is a rarely told story of what it was like to be part of a team of artists who were creating masterpieces of animation Martha Sigall worked with many classic cartoon characters - Bugs Bunny, Elmer Fudd, Tom & Jerry, Tweety, and Porky Pig to name a few - and the madcap artists who created them - including Chuck Jones, Tex Avery, Fritz Freleng, William Hanna and Joseph Barbera...She recounts her wild and wonderful experiences with the Warner Bros. cartoon crew, working and laughing all day with the animators, partying all night with the Looney Tunes gang; her time at MGM Animation; and as a freelance inker/painter creating art for features, shorts, commercials, and TV series - including Garfield, Peanuts, and The Pink Panther. Recipient of numerous awards for her artistry, Martha Sigall worked in animation for over fifty years from 1936 to 1989.
