Looking for Love in All the Wrong Places? Here's How to End the Search!

Are you stuck in a revolving door of bad dates? Or maybe you've given up on finding a meaningful relationship altogether. According to dating experts David Coleman and Richard Doyle, it doesn't have to be that way. You can have that happy, healthy relationship you've been looking for.

With eye-opening exercises, quizzes, and other self-assessment tools, the authors show you how to pinpoint specific aspects of your personality that have caused you to pick poorly, remain in bad relationships, or sabotage good ones. Once you understand the reasons why you choose a certain type of person, you can focus on how to choose and attract the right person for you.

Inside, you'll learn how to avoid:

Bad Picks

- The Girdle—strives to control you
- The Dog Catcher—flees at the first sign of commitment
- The Ferrari—requires high maintenance

Bad Kissers

- The Hoover—sucks out fillings, tongue—anything
- Niagara Falls—produces enough liquid for a regatta
- The Puppy—licks you all over your face

Bad Break-ups

- The Western Union—ends relationship by letter, note, or e-mail
- The Freezer—turns from warm and caring to cold and callous
- The Fade Away—lets the relationship fade by avoiding conflict
