What is it like to live with a hidden disability? Find out in this honest and gripping personal narrative of one woman's life with hidden disabilities, including LD, ADHD, bipolar disorder, and sensory integrative disorder. Yet this is more than just her story of battling adversity and coming out a winner--within each chapter, you'll also get expert clinical commentary by Dr. Larry Silver, nationally renowned psychiatrist in the fields of LD and ADHD. Dr. Silver provides astute guidance on appropriate interventions that could have helped Veronica learn and grow in a more productive, positive way. This fascinating, informative book will give you a fuller appreciation of the challenges and triumphs of living with hidden disabilities--and an awareness of what can be done to help
