Ayato suddenly finds himself back inside Tokyo Jupiter. There he sees his old friends, Mamoru and Hiroko. But something is not right. Bewildered, he wanders around in a world that is the embodiment of his own desires. Elsewhere, Quon awakens from her sleep, and it is decided she will be put in the care of the Bahbem Foundation. Reika makes an appearance, as do the Vermillion, TERRA's newest military technology, human specimen number one and Isshiki, Itsuki and Helena's past. Everyone is moving closer to the truth.
